ELAINE Construction Expands Project Management Team

David Pendell and Rebecca Wong Join Newton Construction Management Company

NEWTON, MA – Sept. 24, 2007– ELAINE Construction, a full-service construction management firm, today announced the expansion of its team with the addition of David Pendell as project manager and Rebecca Wong as assistant project manager.

“We welcome David and Rebecca to ELAINE,” said Lisa Wexler, president of ELAINE Construction. “This is an exciting year at ELAINE as we celebrate our 60th year in business. Both David and Rebecca bring valuable experience that will be instrumental in achieving our business goals for our next phase of growth.”

Pendall comes to ELAINE as a seasoned construction and operations manager with more than 10 years of experience managing diverse projects from $100,000-$5 million. Prior to joining ELAINE, David honed his project management skills on a range of corporate, residential and public projects for Suffolk, Macomber and Capital Construction, including work at International Place, Lafayette Corporate Center, State Street Bank & Trust, and Youville Hospital/Nursing Home rehab in Cambridge.

As assistant project manager, Wong will serve as a liaison to the architects, designers and project documentation teams. She joins ELAINE as a recent graduate of Cornell University and a past intern at ELAINE Construction. She brings two years of professional experience in facilities management, research and construction management to the team.
